

Section 1: Personal Connection to Nation

1. What does your nationality mean to you?

- A. A deep part of who I am
- B. Important, but not defining
- C. Just where I was born
- D. Something I question or redefine

2. When you hear your national anthem, you feel:

- A. Pride and belonging
- B. Respect, but also curiosity
- C. Neutral
- D. Disconnected or reflective

3. How important are traditions in your life?

- A. Very important—they shape identity
- B. Somewhat important
- C. Not very important
- D. I prefer creating my own traditions

Section 2: Culture & Values

4. Which influences you more?

- A. My country's culture and history
- B. A mix of cultures
- C. Global culture (media, internet, etc.)
- D. Personal experiences over any culture

5. Do you believe cultural values should be preserved?

- A. Yes, strongly
- B. Yes, but adapted over time
- C. Not necessarily
- D. Only if they align with modern ethics

6. When meeting someone from a different culture, you:

- A. Compare similarities and differences
- B. Feel curious and open
- C. Feel unsure or cautious
- D. Focus on individual connection, not culture

Section 3: Identity & Belonging

7. Which statement resonates most?

- A. “I am my nation”
- B. “I am shaped by my nation”
- C. “I exist beyond nationality”
- D. “Identity is fluid and evolving”

8. Where do you feel most at home?

- A. My country
- B. Anywhere familiar
- C. Anywhere in the world
- D. Within myself

9. What creates belonging for you?

- A. Shared language and heritage
- B. Community and relationships
- C. Shared values and ideas
- D. Personal authenticity

Section 4: Global Perspective

10. How do you view borders?

- A. Necessary for protection and identity
- B. Important but should be flexible
- C. Often limiting
- D. Mostly symbolic

11. Should national identity come before global responsibility?

- A. Yes
- B. Sometimes
- C. Rarely
- D. No

12. How do global issues (climate, conflict, inequality) affect you?

- A. Through my country's role
- B. As both national and global concerns
- C. As global issues beyond borders
- D. As human issues, regardless of nation

Section 5: Critical Thinking

13. Can national pride become harmful?

- A. Rarely
- B. Sometimes
- C. Often
- D. It depends entirely on context

14. Do political narratives influence identity?

- A. Strongly
- B. Somewhat
- C. Slightly
- D. I actively question them

15. What is most important moving forward?

- A. Protecting national identity
- B. Balancing tradition and change
- C. Embracing global unity
- D. Redefining identity personally and collectively